

Response re FOI on use of Construction Skills Certification Scheme

	Tenant Services	Asset Management
Question 1 Does Stroud District Council provide guidance on Office of Government Commerce Common Minimum Standards to staff responsible for contracting construction projects, and if so, does this include information on the Construction Skills Certification Scheme? a) Yes b) No c) Sometimes (please provide details)	Yes. All tenders have a requirement for all to have CSCS cards to work for Stroud District Council on construction.	No
Question 2 2. Does Stroud District Council state in tender documentation that bidders should require all members of contractors supply teams who are workers on or regular visitors to a construction site are registered on the Construction Skills Certification Scheme or are able to prove competence in some other appropriate way? a) Yes b) No c) Sometimes (please provide details)	Yes. All are required to be CSCS card holders.	Yes.
Question 3 3. Does Stroud District Council include a clause in construction contracts requiring that all members of contractors supply teams who are workers on or regular visitors to a construction site are registered on the Construction Skills Certification Scheme or are able to prove competence in some other appropriate way? a) Yes b) No c) Sometimes (please provide details)	Yes	No.