

The Gloucestershire Flag

This is one of the flags that flies outside Ebley Mill.

It is the official flag for Gloucestershire. The blue represents the River Severn flowing into the heart of the county, the green is for the countryside and the cream represents the Cotswold Stone that this area is so famous for.