

Ebley Mill – points to look for at the front of the building

- What sort of roof does it have?
- What materials have been used for the roof?
- How many chimneys are there?

- What building materials have been used ?
- Why is the stone different colours?
- Which part of the building are oldest?

- How many flagpoles are there?
- What flags are flying?
- What signs and notices are there?

- Can you see the clock tower?
- Is the clock telling the right time?
- How many clock faces can you see?
- What other buildings can you see?

- How many windows are there ?
- How many different types of window are there?
- How have the older windows been adapted to make them more energy efficient ?

If you stand on the new canal bridge, and look across the valley, can you see the tower of Selsley Church in the distance?

- How many different types of lighting can you see?
- Where do visitors park?
- What about disabled visitors?