1. SECURITY OF YOUR TENANCY

1.1 Using the property

- 1.1.1 You must live in the property we have let to you under this agreement and make it your only or principal home.
- 1.1.2 You must notify us in writing if you intend to be away from the property for more than 28 days. You must provide details of where you are going, when you intend to return and provide contact details for someone who has access to the property in case of emergencies.
- 1.1.3 We recognise that you have the legal right to stay in the property as long as you keep to the conditions of your tenancy or unless a court orders you should be excluded or unless possession upon a ground for possession under Schedule 2 of the Housing Act 1985 is made out.
- 1.1.4 Unless you live in Sheltered Accommodation, you may sublet part of the property but not all of it. You must obtain our written permission before doing so. If you live in Sheltered Accommodation you have no right to sublet any part of the property at any time. If you sublet all of your property, you will lose security of tenure and cannot regain it, and we can end the Tenancy by serving you with a Notice to Quit. In addition to seeking to evict you, we will also consider applying to the court for an unlawful profit order, requiring you repay to us the profits of your unlawful subletting.
- 1.1.5 Any requests for permission will need to be made in writing to Tenant Services, Stroud District Council, Ebley Mill, Ebley Wharf, Stroud, GL5 4UB or emailed to housing.management@stroud.gov.uk

1.2 Occupants and Visitors to the property

- 1.2.1 You are liable for the conduct of yourself, your household and your visitors whether or not you instruct, encourage or allow it. You must not permit or suffer any breach of these conditions by any occupant or by any visitor to the property.
- 1.2.2 If you live in Sheltered Accommodation you may not allow, permit or encourage any person to reside at the property, save for those expressly authorised by Stroud District Council, following the grant of the tenancy. If you allow any other person to reside at the property without Stroud District Councils consent, it will constitute a breach of tenancy and you could face eviction.

1.3 When we visit the property

1.3.1 All Officers and Contractors attending the property will have identification. If they cannot produce identification do not allow them access and you should contact us immediately to notify us of the incident.

1.4 Information sharing – in compliance with the Data Protection Act 1998 and General Data Protection Regulations.

1.4.1 Meaning of “Personal information”: For the purpose of this clause personal information means any information we may hold about you (and other people who live in the property). If you have any queries about how we collect or use your personal information you should write to us.

1.4.2 What we may use personal information for: By signing this agreement you acknowledge that we will hold and use personal information relating to you. You acknowledge that we will hold and use all personal information obtained under this agreement (or from others) for the following purposes:

- to carry out our obligations under this agreement;
- to carry out our obligations for general management of the estate and your property;
- to enforce our rights under this agreement;
- to keep to our obligations to others we employ or deal with to carry out our responsibilities and enforce our rights under this agreement (our obligations may be legal or contractual, including protecting their health and safety);
- to carry out our obligations to our other tenants.
- to comply with any other legal obligation; and
- for research, marketing, consideration of and implementation of new services for tenants.

We may use your personal information in other ways to support the proper management and delivery of our business and services. Details of this are set out in our Privacy Policy.

1.4.3 Who we may pass personal information to: In order for us to carry out the above purposes, you acknowledge that we may need to pass on personal information relating to you to any third party as we may decide in order to carry out the above provisions. These other people may include:

- any person we have asked to carry out general housing management, repair and maintenance work to the property or estate;
- law enforcement officers;
- social services;
- local authorities;
- support agencies, and
- professional advisers.

1.4.4 If you leave your home owing rent or any other money to us, you also acknowledge that we may pass on information about you to any debt recovery or tracing agency that we instruct to recover that debt. If you leave your home owing money in respect of electricity, gas, water, telephone or other similar charges, you agree that we may pass on your contact details to the company to whom you owe the money or any agent acting on their behalf.

- 1.4.5 Seeing your personal information: You have the right to inspect your file and computer information, and to record in writing any inaccuracies or disagreements. We may withhold information where we have the legal right to do so, for example:
- information which identifies a third party who has not given their consent for the information to be passed on,
 - information provided by an external agency on the understanding that it will not be disclosed,
 - information that is the subject of legal privilege, statutory requirement, or could lead to legal action being taken against the individual or us,
 - information which could cause physical or mental harm to an individual,
 - information which could cause commercial or financial damage to us.

We will tell you the legal reasons why we may have to withhold certain personal information, should you request it.

1.5 Legal proceedings

- 1.5.1 We will not seek possession of the property unless we feel it is reasonable and proportionate to do so. We can obtain possession of the property:

- (i) By accepting a notice of termination from you (See Section 7).
- (ii) By accepting a surrender of tenancy from you (See Section 7).

- 1.5.2 We may also seek possession of your property using any of the grounds set out in Schedule 2 of the Housing Act 1985 as may be amended, from time to time. They currently include:

- (i) Ground 1: Rent lawfully due from the tenant has not been paid or an obligation of the tenancy has been broken or not performed
- (ii) Ground 2: The tenant or a person residing in or visiting the dwelling-house has been guilty of conduct causing or likely to cause a nuisance or annoyance to a person residing, visiting or otherwise engaging in a lawful activity in the locality, or has been convicted of using the dwelling-house or allowing it to be used for immoral or illegal purposes, or an indictable offence committed in, or in the locality of, the dwelling-house.
- (iii) Ground 3: The condition of the dwelling-house or of any part of the common parts has deteriorated owing to acts of waste by, or neglect or default of, the tenant or a person residing in the dwelling-house and, in the case of an act of waste by, or the neglect or default of, a person lodging with the tenant or a sub-tenant of his, the tenant has not taken such steps as he ought reasonably to have taken for the removal of the lodger or sub-tenant.
- (iv) Ground 5: The tenant is the person, or one of the persons, to whom the tenancy was granted and the landlord was induced to grant the tenancy by a false statement made knowingly or recklessly by the tenant, or a person acting at the tenant's instigation.

- 1.5.3 In line with The Anti-Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014 the Council may also consider using the absolute ground for possession, as may be amended from time to time. This currently means that the Court must make a possession order unless to do so would be wrong under human rights, public or equality law. In the event of any of the following circumstances the Council may apply for possession:

- (i) If the tenant, someone residing at the property, or a visitor to the property is convicted of a serious criminal offence.
- (ii) If the tenant, someone residing at the property, or a visitor to the property is found by a Court to have breached any terms of an Injunction as described in Part 1 of this Act.
- (iii) If the tenant, someone residing at the property, or a visitor to the property is convicted of an offence under Section 30 of this Act – committing an act which is prohibited by a criminal behaviour order or fails to do something they are required to do by a criminal behaviour order.
- (iv) If the property is, or has been, subject to a Closure Order.
- (v) If the tenant, someone residing at the property, or a visitor to the property is convicted of an offence under the Environmental Protection Act 1990. Offences would be condition of the property, smoke, fumes or gases from the property, animals kept in the property, artificial light emitted from the property and noise emitted from the property that is prejudicial to health or a nuisance.

1.5.4 You will be served with a Notice informing you of our decision to apply for possession. If we are relying on an absolute ground, you have the right to request a review of the decision to serve this Notice but the timescales involved are limited:

- (i) Possession Proceedings - You must inform us in writing of your request to review the Notice within 7 days of the Notice being served on you
- (ii) You can choose to have your review conducted in person or without you being present
- (iii) A panel will consider the evidence which has led to the service of the Notice and any evidence provided by you
- (iv) The panel will make a decision on the matter within 28 days of the Notice being served and if the decision to serve the Notice is upheld we will continue with our application for possession

1.5.5 We can chose which method of service we use to send you a legal Notice. We can serve Legal Notices by:

- (i) Sending or posting it to, or leaving it at the Property;
- (ii) By affixing it to a prominent part of the Property such as window or door;
- (iii) By giving it to you or anyone at the address; or
- (iv) By sending it to your last known address.

1.5.6 Any costs incurred in taking legal proceedings against you will be recharged to you.

1.5.7 Recharges must be paid within 28 days of receipt of invoice. After 28 days, we may decide to pass the debt to an external agency for collection.

6.3 Right to buy

6.3.1 If you live in sheltered accommodation you are excluded from exercising the Right to Buy your home. This is based on the Housing Act 1985, Schedule 5, Section 10.

6.3.2 For those not living in sheltered accommodation you may be eligible for the Right to Buy your home. You must notify us in writing if this is your intention.

6.4. Changes to the tenancy conditions

6.4.1 We may vary the tenancy conditions either by mutual agreement in writing or by appropriate statutory procedures (currently the service of a Notice of Variation under sections 102 and 103 of the 1985 Housing Act). Before doing so, we will seek your views and take account of them.

7. ENDING YOUR TENANCY

7.1 Giving us notice

7.1.1 You may end your tenancy by providing us with four weeks written notice, starting on a Monday and ending on a Sunday. We may accept a short notice, or a notice ending on a different day but we are not obliged to.

7.1.2 The tenancy may be ended by any one of two joint tenants (whether with or without the knowledge or consent of the other joint tenant) by providing us with four weeks written notice, starting on a Monday and ending on a Sunday. This ends the tenancy for both tenants.

7.2 Your responsibilities after giving us notice

7.2.1 You must leave the property in a clean condition and in a good state of repair. You will be recharged for any works undertaken, which are not considered to be fair wear and tear, to bring the property up to a good letting standard.

7.2.2 If you fail to return the keys for the property by the termination of tenancy date we will charge you use and occupation charges until the keys are returned or we are able to secure possession and change the locks, which we will also charge you for.

7.2.3 If you have terminated your tenancy but have not left the property or you have terminated your tenancy, left the property but there are person/s in residence, we may issue a Notice to Quit and commence legal proceedings for possession of the property.

7.3 If you don't give us notice

7.3.1 If you have vacated the property for more than 28 days without giving the required notification, and we are of the view you have ceased to occupy as your only or principal home, we may issue a Notice to Quit and commence legal proceedings for possession of the property.

7.3.2 Any work undertaken to gain entry to the property and subsequently secure the property as a result of a warrant of eviction will be recharged to you.

7.4 If you breach your tenancy conditions

7.4.1 Failure to adhere to the terms of your tenancy may result in legal proceedings against you for breach of tenancy. You may be evicted.

7.4.2 Any costs incurred in taking legal proceedings against you will be recharged to you.

7.5 Other reasons why we may seek to end your tenancy

7.5.1 You must not at any time during this tenancy become entitled to occupy other accommodation which is reasonably suitable for your occupation and which is or would be reasonable for you to occupy. You agree to tell us immediately if you become the owner, leaseholder or tenant of another property. We may take steps to end this tenancy if we believe that you are entitled to occupy another property which is reasonably suitable for your occupation and which is or would be reasonable for you to occupy, taking into account, amongst other things: whether the property is fit to live in, whether you have acquired it as a holiday home and it is only suitable for such purpose, whether it is suitable for the size of your household, taking into account the size of the property, your income and employment, disabilities or medical needs, and any other relevant circumstances.
