To protect the wellbeing of everyone living in sheltered housing, please follow the guidelines below:

- The communal lounge, kitchen and toilets are closed. Please do not use them.
- The guest rooms are closed.
- The laundry room is open, with the following conditions:
 - Only two people can use the room as long as you can stay 2 meters apart.
 - Wait outside for people using the room finish, please try not to gather outside the laundry.
 - Clean the machines after using them.
- Please respect people's space when moving around the buildings and keep at least two meters away from each other.
- Only carers or people bringing essential supplies such as food and medication can visit. Family members should keep in touch with loved ones by phone.
- Please be safe when you go outdoors and into the communal grounds. Keep at least two meters away from others and try and go out when it looks quiet. You may need to use an alternative route to access the garden other than going through the communal lounge.
- Wash your hands every time you enter or leave your home with soap and water for at least twenty seconds

Thank you for your continued cooperation.
