

Personal Licence – Relevant Offences

LICENSING ACT 2003

The following offences are specified as relevant offences under the Licensing Act 2003. Any convictions for these offences must be declared:

- a) When you apply for a Personal Licence
- b) If you are convicted whilst you hold a current Personal Licence.

‘Spent’ convictions need not be disclosed

You must also declare any convictions for equivalent offences committed in any place other than England and Wales – these are known as ‘foreign offences’.

If you are charged with a relevant offence, and you have a Personal Licence, you must tell the Court you are a Personal Licence Holder no later than your first appearance in Court in connection with the offence. The Court may decide to revoke your Personal Licence.

From 6th April 2017 the Council also has the power to revoke or suspend your Personal Licence if you are convicted of a relevant offence after 6th April 2017.

If you are convicted of a relevant offence after you have been granted a Personal Licence you must tell the Licensing Section as soon as reasonably possible. You will have to return your Personal Licence to us. If the Council or the Court has decided to not revoke your Personal Licence, we will add the details of the relevant offence onto your Licence and then re-issue it to you.

Spent Convictions

You do not need to tell us about spent convictions or cautions in relation to your personal licence.

Under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 some convictions become spent after a period of time known as the rehabilitation period.

Rehabilitation periods for England and Wales

Custodial sentence	Rehabilitation period (from end of sentence)
0 - 6 months	2 years
6 - 30 months	4 years
30 months - 4 years	7 years
more than 4 years	never

Non-custodial sentence	Rehabilitation period (from end of sentence)
community order	1 year
fine	1 year (from date of conviction)
absolute discharge	none

Custodial sentence includes both immediate and suspended sentences of imprisonment. The rehabilitation period is from the end of the sentence.

The rehabilitation period is halved if you were under 18 when convicted (except for sentences of up to 6 months where it's the sentence period plus 18 months).

Cautions

Simple cautions become spent immediately. Conditional cautions become spent after 3 months.
