Section 18 of 21

LICENSING OBJECTIVES

Describe the steps you intend to take to promote the four licensing objectives:

a) General – all four licensing objectives (b,c,d,e)

List here steps you will take to promote all four licensing objectives together.

The premises will operate to a high standard, and will do so should this licence be granted in terms of the sale of alcohol. No member of staff shall be permitted to sell alcohol until they have received appropriate training concerning: the Licensing Act 2003 and the licensing objectives; the conditions attached to the premises licence; Challenge 25; acceptable forms of identification; prevention of proxy purchasing; refusal of sales to intoxicated persons; dealing with confrontational customers; recording refusals and incidents; and the operation of the CCTV system where appropriate. Refresher training shall be provided periodically and following any relevant change in legislation or premises procedures. A written or electronic record of staff training shall be maintained and made available for inspection by an authorised officer of the Licensing Authority or Police upon reasonable request.

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

A digital CCTV system shall be installed and maintained in effective working order at the premises.

The CCTV system shall operate at all times that the premises are open to the public and shall provide coverage of:

- all public areas within the convenience store;
- the entrance and exit;
- the alcohol display area;
- the till/payment area; and
- the petrol forecourt so far as reasonably practicable.

CCTV recordings shall be of sufficient quality to enable identification of persons and shall be retained for a minimum period of 31 days.

At all times that the premises are open to the public, there shall be a member of staff present who is able to operate the CCTV system and download recordings.

CCTV recordings shall be made available to an authorised officer of the Licensing Authority or Police as soon as reasonably practicable following a lawful request.

The date and time displayed by the CCTV system shall be maintained accurately.

The premises shall be adequately staffed at all times to ensure the promotion of the licensing objectives, having regard to the anticipated level of customer activity.

Between 23:00 and 06:00, a minimum of two members of staff shall be on duty at the premises whenever the premises are open to customers.

An incident log shall be maintained at the premises. It shall record:

- incidents of crime and disorder;
- incidents of antisocial behaviour;
- refusals of alcohol sales;
- persons refused entry or asked to leave;
- occasions when the Police are called;
- complaints relating to the operation of the premises; and
- any significant malfunction of the CCTV system.

The incident log shall be retained at the premises and made available to an authorised officer of the Licensing Authority or Police upon reasonable request.

Staff shall be instructed to refuse the sale of alcohol where they reasonably believe that the sale would be contrary to the Licensing Act 2003, including attempted purchases by persons who are intoxicated or suspected proxy purchases.

Any person behaving in a threatening, abusive, disorderly or seriously antisocial manner shall be refused service and, where appropriate, required to leave the premises.

Where an individual is known to have been responsible for serious or repeated incidents of crime, disorder or antisocial behaviour at the premises, management shall consider excluding that person from the premises.

Alcohol purchased from the premises shall not be consumed anywhere within the petrol forecourt or other external areas forming part of the licensed premises.

Prominent notices shall be displayed advising customers that consumption of alcohol on the forecourt is prohibited.

c) Public safety

Staff will be trained to be alert to any potential danger to customers and react accordingly. If they are unable to quickly defuse the situation without risk to customer or staff, then they are instructed to call the police.

All relevant fire procedures are in place for a premise of this size.

All escape routes shall be kept unobstructed and clearly marked.

First aid provision shall be available on the premises.

d) The prevention of public nuisance

Notices shall be prominently displayed at the exit requesting customers to leave the premises and surrounding area quietly and to have consideration for neighbouring residents.

Staff shall monitor the immediate vicinity of the premises and, where customers are identified as causing unreasonable noise or disturbance associated with the premises, staff shall take reasonable steps to discourage such behaviour.

No waste glass or bottles shall be emptied into external receptacles between 23:00 and 07:00 where such activity is likely to cause a disturbance to nearby residents.

e) The protection of children from harm

The premises shall operate a Challenge 25 age-verification policy.

Any person who appears to be under the age of 25 shall be required to produce acceptable photographic identification before being permitted to purchase alcohol.

Acceptable identification shall include a passport, photocard driving licence, a proof-of-age card bearing the PASS hologram, or another form of identification recognised under the mandatory age-verification provisions.

Notices advertising the Challenge 25 policy shall be prominently displayed at the premises.

A refusals register, whether written or electronic, shall be maintained recording refusals of alcohol sales.

The register shall record the date and time of the refusal and the reason for refusal.

The refusals register shall be checked regularly by the DPS or other responsible manager and shall be made available to an authorised officer of the Licensing Authority or Police upon reasonable request

Section 19 of 21

NOTES ON DEMONSTRATING ENTITLEMENT TO WORK IN THE UK

Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Documents which demonstrate entitlement to work in the UK

- An expired or current passport showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a British citizen or a citizen of the UK and Colonies having the right of abode in the UK [please see note below about which sections of the passport to copy].
- An expired or current passport or national identity card showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Registration Certificate or document certifying permanent residence issued by the Home Office to a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Permanent Residence Card issued by the Home Office to the family member of a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder indicating that the person named is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is exempt from immigration control, is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, has the right of abode in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current Immigration Status Document issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK or has no time limit on their stay in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man or Ireland when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A certificate of registration or naturalisation as a British citizen, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.

- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is allowed to stay in the UK and is currently allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder which indicates that the named person can currently stay in the UK and is allowed to work relation to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Residence Card issued by the Home Office to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights or residence.
- A current Immigration Status Document containing a photograph issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person may stay in the UK, and is allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A Certificate of Application, less than 6 months old, issued by the Home Office under regulation 18(3) or 20(2) of the Immigration (European Economic Area) Regulations 2016, to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence.
- Reasonable evidence that the person has an outstanding application to vary their permission to be in the UK with the Home Office such as the Home Office acknowledgement letter or proof of postage evidence, or reasonable evidence that the person has an appeal or administrative review pending on an immigration decision, such as an appeal or administrative review reference number.
- Reasonable evidence that a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence in exercising treaty rights in the UK including:-
 - evidence of the applicant's own identity – such as a passport,
 - evidence of their relationship with the European Economic Area family member – e.g. a marriage certificate, civil partnership certificate or birth certificate, and
 - evidence that the European Economic Area national has a right of permanent residence in the UK or is one of the following if they have been in the UK for more than 3 months:
 - (i) working e.g. employment contract, wage slips, letter from the employer,
 - (ii) self-employed e.g. contracts, invoices, or audited accounts with a bank,
 - (iii) studying e.g. letter from the school, college or university and evidence of sufficient funds; or
 - (iv) self-sufficient e.g. bank statements.

Family members of European Economic Area nationals who are studying or financially independent must also provide evidence that the European Economic Area national and any family members hold comprehensive sickness insurance in the UK. This can include a private medical insurance policy, an EHIC card or an S1, S2 or S3 form.

Original documents must not be sent to licensing authorities. If the document copied is a passport, a copy of the following pages should be provided:-

- (i) any page containing the holder's personal details including nationality;
- (ii) any page containing the holder's photograph;
- (iii) any page containing the holder's signature;
- (iv) any page containing the date of expiry; and
- (v) any page containing information indicating the holder has permission to enter or remain in the UK and is permitted to work.

If the document is not a passport, a copy of the whole document should be provided.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.

Band E - £125001 and over £1,905.00

There is an exemption from the payment of fees in relation to the provision of regulated entertainment at church halls, chapel halls or premises of a similar nature, village halls, parish or community halls, or other premises of a similar nature. The costs associated with these licences will be met by central Government. If, however, the licence also authorises the use of the premises for the supply of alcohol or the provision of late night refreshment, a fee will be required.

Schools and sixth form colleges are exempt from the fees associated with the authorisation of regulated entertainment where the entertainment is provided by and at the school or college and for the purposes of the school or college.

If you operate a large event you are subject to ADDITIONAL fees based upon the number in attendance at any one time
