

Stroud Local Plan (2026) - Early Scoping Consultation

Stroud District Council is preparing a new Local Plan to guide development in the District over the next 15–20 years. This early consultation seeks your views on the priorities, challenges and overall direction of the new plan. At this stage, we are not consulting on detailed policies or site allocations. Instead, we are asking for your views on the key issues, potential approaches to growth, and what the plan should contain.

The responses to this consultation will help shape the Sustainability Appraisal, which is being carried out alongside the Local Plan. The Sustainability Appraisal is a key part of the plan-making process. It is done in stages and is used to look at the environmental, social and economic effects of the proposed approach, as well as other reasonable options, to make sure the Plan supports sustainable development.

In line with standard planning policy practice, your comments will be published along with any organisation names. Section 5 – Spatial distribution of development

The Council will prioritise brownfield land where possible. However, this will not be sufficient to meet development needs, (new homes, employment or open space), so additional land will be required. This will involve balancing environmental, social and economic considerations

We know that using previously developed (brownfield) land will help, but it will not be enough on its own. Because of this, we need to think about different ways growth could happen and the consultation will ask for your views on the following options:

10. Which is your preferred approach? Please rank options A-D below, (1-4) *
