

Stroud District Council

Artificial Intelligence Register

The council uses the following AI tools to help deliver its services:

Supplier	System	Purpose	Service Lines	Current Status	Install Date
Microsoft	Copilot	Assists officers in a range of activities including: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Data analysis• Policy development• Preparing communications, reports and presentations• Research• Summarising documents and emails Note: No data is shared with AI models operating outside the council IT network	All	In use	Nov 2023
Netcall	Liberty	On-line tool to assist customer enquiries	Contact Centre	In use	February 2024
Recite Me	Recite Me	Improves accessibility on the main website including: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Text generation for image descriptions• Content simplification• Page summarisation• Real time language translation• Text to speech translation	N/A	In use	April 2025

Notes

1. The table excludes any uses relating to technical matters such as how the council manages its cyber security
2. The column headings are explained below:
 - a. Supplier: The name of the supplier of the system
 - b. System: The name given to the AI technology by its supplier
 - c. Purpose: What the AI system does for the council
 - d. Current Status: Is the AI system currently being used or has this been discontinued:
 - In use
 - Discontinued
 - Temporarily discontinued (e.g. due to an officer review identifying an issue)
 - e. Install Date: Date the tool was implemented for use.