OPERATING SCHEDULE

When do you want the premises licence to start? / /

Provide a general description of the premises

For example the type of premises, its general situation and layout and any other information which could be relevant to the licensing objectives. Where your application includes off-supplies of alcohol and you intend to provide a place for consumption of these off- supplies you must include a description of where the place will be and its proximity to the premises.

1. Description of premises

Studio 18 is a dynamic arts and community space situated in a converted, industrial-style warehouse. The single-story building is located in the Brimscombe Port area of Stroud, adjacent to the Stroudwater Canal. The premises serve multiple functions and are primarily composed of:

A main, flexible, open-plan space that serves as a gallery and event area.
Smaller, individual and shared artist studios located off the main space.
A dedicated film editing suite and screening facility.
An integrated bar area for serving refreshments, including alcohol during specified events.
Male, female, and accessible toilet facilities.
Storage areas for equipment and materials.

2. General situation and layout

The venue is an independent, semi detached structure. It features a main entrance and a secondary, fire escape exit. The layout of the main event space is configurable to accommodate a wide variety of events, from art exhibitions and community workshops to live music performances and film screenings.

The premises also include external areas:

A small, private, enclosed space that serves as a smoking area.

An adjacent public pathway, part of the canal towpath, which is outside of the licensed boundary.

3. Location context

The premises are situated in a mixed-use area of Brimscombe. The immediate vicinity consists of other commercial and light industrial units, but is also bordered at distance by residential properties and a public footpath along the canal. This has been a key consideration in developing our operational strategy to prevent public nuisance.

4. Intended licensable activities

The premises licence is required to authorise a number of activities integral to Studio 18's community and cultural mission:
The sale of alcohol: The sale of alcohol will be restricted to specific licensed events and exhibitions.

5. Operating model

Studio 18 functions as a flexible, multi-purpose venue. Our operating model is centred on being an accessible, inclusive space for artists and the wider community. As such, the premises will operate with varying layouts and hours depending on the event, from daytime workshops to evening music events. The operational plan includes specific measures to mitigate any impact on neighboring residential properties, as detailed in the accompanying operating schedule.

The majority of events and activities will revolve around culture arts and local music, providing many opportunities for local creatives and entrepreneurial youth initiatives. As Well as providing a community space. The sale of alcohol is really a secondary income in order to support projects and create more jobs making Studio 18 a bit more self-sufficient. Also its worth noting that Studio 18 will not be aiming to be open all days listed but would want the flexibility to program various events including open days, exhibitions and community events during the days applied for.

If 5,000 or more people are expected to attend the premises at any one time, state the number expected to attend

LICENSING OBJECTIVES

Describe the steps you intend to take to promote the four licensing objectives:

a) General – all four licensing objectives (b,c,d,e)

List here steps you will take to promote all four licensing objectives together.

Ethical operations: We will operate with a core focus on our community mission—to foster creativity and provide an inclusive platform for local artists. This commitment is a fundamental part of our strategy for promoting a safe and well-managed venue.

Staff training: All permanent staff, volunteers, and event managers will be trained on the four licensing objectives. This will include specific guidance on event management in a mixed-use arts space and handling incidents with professionalism. Training records will be kept and made available to authorities upon request.

Proactive communication: We will maintain an open dialogue with the licensing authority, police, and Environmental Health regarding our event schedule, particularly for those involving amplified music or late hours.

Incident log: A formal log will be maintained to record any incidents of crime, disorder, noise complaints, or refusals of service. This log will be regularly reviewed and made available for inspection by authorities.

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

Targeted CCTV: A CCTV system will be installed and maintained to cover all entrances, exits, and public event spaces. Footage will be retained for at least 31 days and provided to the police upon request.

Door supervision: For high-capacity events, especially those with amplified music (e.g., DJ nights or festivals), if deemed necessary SIA-registered door supervisors will be employed to manage entry and maintain order.

Proactive venue management: Staff will be trained to monitor for and address signs of anti-social behaviour or drug use. We will operate a zero-tolerance policy towards illegal drugs and will cooperate fully with the police on any such matters.

Community engagement: We will actively participate in local safety schemes, such as Pubwatch or Neighbourhood Watch, to foster a collaborative approach to community safety.

Training on vulnerability engagement: Provide staff with vulnerability training, such as the Welfare and Vulnerability Engagement (WAVE) training available via the Safer Sounds Partnership, to help them identify and appropriately respond to potentially vulnerable individuals, even if they do not explicitly ask for Angela.

Reporting and escalation protocol: Establish a clear escalation procedure for staff to notify a manager or security immediately when a customer asks for Angela. Define when it is necessary to contact the police (e.g., in the event of an immediate threat).

Partnership with local police: Inform our local police licensing team that we are participating in the scheme.

c) Public safety

Managing capacity: A safe and clearly defined capacity of 350 limit will be set for the venue and will be strictly managed, especially during popular events and festivals.

Fire safety: Our fire risk assessment will be regularly reviewed and updated to reflect the dynamic use of our space. All fire exits will be clearly marked and kept clear of obstructions, including art installations and equipment.

First aid provision: A designated first aid kit will be maintained on-site, and a trained first aider will be present during all licensable activities.

Layout and flow: The layout of the venue will be planned for each event to ensure safe and unhindered movement of the public, with particular attention paid to the flow of people in the converted warehouse space.

Implement and promote the Ask for Angela scheme: Display posters, especially in restrooms, to inform customers that they can discreetly ask a member of staff for "Angela" if they feel unsafe or threatened.

Establish a clear staff response procedure: Train all staff on what to do when a person asks for Angela. This may include: Taking the person to a safer, discreet area away from the individual causing concern.

Reuniting the person with their friends.

Ordering a licensed taxi for the person and ensuring they get into it safely.

Providing support services information.

d) The prevention of public nuisance

Noise mitigation strategy: As part of our ongoing commitment to being a good neighbour, we have implemented a comprehensive noise mitigation strategy, including further soundproofing measures within the building.

Sound control for events: For all amplified music events, sound levels will be monitored and controlled to remain within agreed-upon limits. Doors and windows will remain closed when music is playing, particularly during evening events.

Managed dispersal policy: At the end of events, a managed dispersal policy will be implemented. This includes making announcements to remind patrons to leave quietly and respect our neighbours in the Brimscombe area.

External area management: The external areas, including the space by the canal, will be regularly monitored and cleared of litter to prevent any public nuisance. Smoking will be restricted to a designated outdoor area.

e) The protection of children from harm

Challenge 25 policy: The Challenge 25 policy will be strictly enforced for all alcohol sales. Signage will be clearly displayed throughout the premises.

Refusals log: A refusals register will be maintained to record any challenges or refusals of service, which will be regularly reviewed as part of our staff training.

Child-friendly events: For community workshops and events explicitly aimed at young people (e.g., funded holiday activities or the '25 and Under' show), alcohol sales will be suspended or restricted to specific areas, and event content will be vetted to ensure it is appropriate.

Clear signage and entry restrictions: Appropriate signage will be displayed advising of age restrictions and licensing policy. During any late-night music events.

NOTES ON DEMONSTRATING ENTITLEMENT TO WORK IN THE UK

Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Documents which demonstrate entitlement to work in the UK

- An expired or current passport showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a British citizen or a citizen of the UK and Colonies having the right of abode in the UK [please see note below about which sections of the passport to copy].
- An expired or current passport or national identity card showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Registration Certificate or document certifying permanent residence issued by the Home Office to a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Permanent Residence Card issued by the Home Office to the family member of a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder indicating that the person named is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is exempt from immigration control, is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, has the right of abode in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current Immigration Status Document issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK or has no time limit on their stay in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man or Ireland when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A certificate of registration or naturalisation as a British citizen, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.

- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is allowed to stay in the UK and is currently allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder which indicates that the named person can currently stay in the UK and is allowed to work relation to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Residence Card issued by the Home Office to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights or residence.
- A current Immigration Status Document containing a photograph issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person may stay in the UK, and is allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A Certificate of Application, less than 6 months old, issued by the Home Office under regulation 18(3) or 20(2) of the Immigration (European Economic Area) Regulations 2016, to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence.
- Reasonable evidence that the person has an outstanding application to vary their permission to be in the UK with the Home Office such as the Home Office acknowledgement letter or proof of postage evidence, or reasonable evidence that the person has an appeal or administrative review pending on an immigration decision, such as an appeal or administrative review reference number.
- Reasonable evidence that a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence in exercising treaty rights in the UK including:-
 - evidence of the applicant's own identity – such as a passport,
 - evidence of their relationship with the European Economic Area family member – e.g. a marriage certificate, civil partnership certificate or birth certificate, and
 - evidence that the European Economic Area national has a right of permanent residence in the UK or is one of the following if they have been in the UK for more than 3 months:
 - (i) working e.g. employment contract, wage slips, letter from the employer,
 - (ii) self-employed e.g. contracts, invoices, or audited accounts with a bank,
 - (iii) studying e.g. letter from the school, college or university and evidence of sufficient funds; or
 - (iv) self-sufficient e.g. bank statements.

Family members of European Economic Area nationals who are studying or financially independent must also provide evidence that the European Economic Area national and any family members hold comprehensive sickness insurance in the UK. This can include a private medical insurance policy, an EHIC card or an S1, S2 or S3 form.

Original documents must not be sent to licensing authorities. If the document copied is a passport, a copy of the following pages should be provided:-

- (i) any page containing the holder's personal details including nationality;
- (ii) any page containing the holder's photograph;
- (iii) any page containing the holder's signature;
- (iv) any page containing the date of expiry; and
- (v) any page containing information indicating the holder has permission to enter or remain in the UK and is permitted to work.

If the document is not a passport, a copy of the whole document should be provided.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.
